

TGH Continuing Medical Education Overview

Continuing Medical Education for Health Care Professionals

General Information and Registration Instructions

Tampa General Hospital offers a variety of medical education programs for community physicians and medical professionals. The Continuing Medical Education (CME) programs help attendees increase their knowledge on a subject and build essential skills to succeed in their medical practice.

All programs are by invitation only. Invitations are both mailed and e-mailed to practicing physicians who specialize in the scheduled CME program topic. A registration URL link, specific to the scheduled CME program, will be included on your invitation. Using the provided URL link, follow the instructions to complete your registration online.

Please note: Registrations can only be completed online.

CME programs are held throughout the following counties:

Charlotte
Citrus
DeSoto
Hardee
Hernando
Highlands
Hillsborough
Manatee
Pasco
Pinellas
Polk
Sarasota

The activities are approved for AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™.

For questions, please contact:

Gretchen Fudge, MBA
Senior CME Coordinator
Office: (813) 844-4304
Mobile: (469) 394-2600
Email: gfudge@tgh.org
Fax: (813) 844-1133

For information regarding CME credit, contact the USF Health Office of Continuing Professional Development at (800) 852-5362 or cpdsupport@health.usf.edu